It Could Happen Here

There was once a City Ideal where everything ran smoothly. Proud citizens not only abided by the law but carefully observed its spirit. Children and youth grew up following the way of their parents.

They enjoyed harmless pleasures in the peaceful community. There were no civic clubs in City Ideal.

Life continued in this vein for a span of time. One day some frisky youths committed minor misdemeanors. No one heeded or cared about their actions. Such acts became increasingly frequent, but the people had grown careless and did nothing.

Soon City Ideal became a lawless village. But there were no civic clubs there.

Belle Glade has approximately 15 civic organizations. The first warning sign has been given the city. Several weeks ago four grammar school youths, feeling the zest of their age and a drive for excitement, entered the Everglades Theatre and caused extensive damage.

Educators at the school evaluation program held here last spring recognized the need for more extensive recreational activities for youth in the city. Although the park offers facilities during the year, no organized program has been planned for the evening hours.

A bowling alley, teen age center and supervised dances were suggested by the evaluation group.

So far Belle Glade's juvenile delinquency record is quite clear. If the state is to keep this way, civic clubs must live up to their purpose of working for community betterment.

Fate of City Ideal could be ours.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
There it Was—Right in the Middle!

Easy Roberts moved his lawn early last Saturday. Then he sat on the porch, and watched Harry Peterson.

The Roberts' property and the Peterson's border each other—with no hedge or fence between them. So when Easy noticed Harry had left about a four-foot strip unweeded along the boundary, he walked over and told him.

"That's your land," says Harry. "Mine over here. See, it lines up with that oak tree across the way. Easy didn't think so, so they went up and down looking for the surveyor's marker. Where did they find it? Right in the middle of their "no man's land!"

Well, they both grin and take turns finishing the job and then retreat to Easy's for a friendly glass of beer together. From where I sit, a little searching around for the truth of the matter often shows that the other fellow is as much right as you are—at which point the whole thing doesn't seem as important anyway.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

This one Telescopes your Timetable

Of course you recognize it.

You doesn't know that those four Ventrports, that graceful sweep of fender-chrome, mark ROADMASTER—best of all the Buicks, unquestioned "big buy" of the fine-car field?

But have you tried it?

Have you matched this sweet-stepping bonny against the tall hills, and the call of the straight-away?

Ever toiled it across town—and seen how Dynaflow's quick surge and smooth take-off slip you through traffic with minimum of foot-motion and maximum of timesaving?

Ever known the good feel of a light and easy wheel, swinging almost at a finger's touch—the soul-satisfying lift in a big 152-hp Fireball engine just waiting for the release your toe-pressure gives it?

There's no reason, really, to wait longer for such satisfying experience.

There's a Buick dealer near you. He delights in showing off ROADMASTER. He'll arrange—unless all his demonstration cars have been snatched away from him by eager buyers—to put you behind a ROADMASTER wheel.

Why not see him now—to find out what's finest in today's fine cars, and how little it takes to buy one?

ENGINEER JAKKE BOYD

The item of $450,000 has been in the "promising" column for years, but we believe we will get some action on this any now by next election.

We have a State Road Department that has been good to us recently; we say sincerely "Thank You," and request our legislative delegation to deliver the message.

Just how much these items in the Glades cost, we don't know; but there's plenty of room between the figures listed above and the amount "expended in the Okeechobee region," or "much of the rest," quoted above. "Much of the rest" comes out of $4,850,000—the difference between the $7,000,000 and the $2,150,000 admittedly spent on the east coast.

The whole picture is modified by Jake with the statement in a letter "The newspaper story you referred to should have read expenditure in immediate past, work in progress and foreseeable future."

Thanks Jake, and the County Commission for what we can see that we have received and what we can't see and what we may expect.

SHOOTIN' BLANKS

One lady was very heated about the whole idea and informed the chief that she would be compelled to take some action against the new parking system. "I simply cannot park that way," she complained. The Chief informed her that to improve it was his duty to report her to the state patrol. With this trend of conversation, she took a different line on the new angles deciding to forget further action if the Chief would do likewise.

It seems as though a fellow can write his head off dropping many pearls of wisdom and still fail to ignite the populace. About the time he figures his words merely serve to fill up space, he gets a spark of encouragement.

Of the numerous hints on needed projects dropped by this writer, one now threatens to breathe life.

The suggestion involved in an editorial encouraging an organizations' coordination committee of the Glades is about to root, according to the highly competent authority, John T. Pickett. The Pahokee Rotary Club program committee met recently and decided to take up the idea as their project.

Those faraway places will soon be visible to three local ladies—Mrs. Imogene Fontaine, Mrs. Mary Foy and Mrs. John Tabb.

Preparations for the trans Atlantic point, to start August 15, are under way. Saturday they will journey into West Palm Beach to get their passports at the court house. They plan to leave New York and fly to Ireland. Their itinerary includes visits in France and Rome, Italy.

Lions who attended the meeting last week learned a thing or two about Korea after hearing an informative speech. The speaker, John L. Pickett, also knows a thing or two more about the country than he did before delivering the talk. He has never been nearer than 2000 miles to Korea. "It's wonderful the information an encyclopedia holds," he says.

Jeanne Hooker Attends Methodist Youth Caravan

Jeanne Hooker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hooker, is attending the Methodist Youth Caravan Training Center in Williamsport, Pa., preparing for voluntary service in local Methodist churches during the next seven weeks.

Experienced in the leadership of Christian activities among fellow youth, Jeanne is one of 230 college young people and 70 adult counselors who will work as members of Caravan teams this summer. Caravaners will serve a total of five hundred churches in the United States, Cuba and Hawaii this summer.

Composed of four young people and one adult counselor, each Caravan team is especially trained to give leadership and direction to the development of a youth program, fulfilling the ideals and purposes of the Methodist Youth Fellowship in each local church. Caravaners assist local youth in planning programs of evangelism, world friendship, and community service. They give suggestions for worship services, direct recreation, help initiate youth projects, and interpret the youth program of the church to civic leaders.

Sponsored by staff members of the Methodist Board of Education, Nashville, Tenn., the five training centers are located at William Penn College, Ocala, Iowa; Lake Junaluska, N. C.; McMurray College, Abilene, Texas; Lymington College, Williamsport, Penna.; and College of the Pacific, Stockton, California.

Now in its 12th year, the Methodist Caravan program has touched more than a million people in over 13,000 churches across the nation and overseas.

Fla. TB Hospital in Lantana To Be Dedicated On July 16

Dedication of Lantana, the State's new $400,000 tuberculosis hospital will be held Sunday, according to Senator John Beacham of Palm Beach, co-chairman for the program.

Serving with Senator Beacham as chairman is Lake Lytal, chairman, Palm Beach County Commission.

The new 500-bed hospital, located approximately 10 miles from West Palm Beach, will serve the Southeast district of Florida. It is the first State institution to be constructed in South Florida, Beacham said, and plans are being rushed to admit patients in August.

Hosts for the dedication will be the State Tuberculosis Board composed of Chairman W. T. Edwards, Jacksonville, Dr. Arnold Anderson, St. Petersburg, and Louis Baggett, Miami. Also, the Palm Beach County Tuberculosis Association; and, health departments of the six counties in the southeast tuberculosis district. These include, in addition to Palm Beach, Monroe, Collier, Dade, Broward, and Martin.

County Defense Council Organized Recently

The Palm Beach County Civil Defense Council, appointed by the State Defense Council, recently met and organized. J. Alex Arnett and Richard P. Robbins were elected chairman and vice-chairman respectively. Other council members are Sheriff John Kirk and County School Superintendent Howell Watkins.

The duties of the Council in a broad sense are as follows: The Council is responsible for the preparation of Civil Defense Plans for all cities, communities and areas within the county and for the coordination of this plan with the plan of adjacent counties to render and receive mutual aid and support in time of emergencies when necessary.

The Council is responsible for the training and education of participating organizations and groups, as well as the general public, in the detailed operation of the prepared plan.

A meeting has been called by the Council to be held in the Circuit Court Room in the Court House, West Palm Beach, at eight o'clock p.m. on Friday, July 14th, at which meeting representatives of all municipalities and organizations, whose services are vital in the operation of any plan of this kind, are invited; the purpose of which is to discuss this program and plan with a view of having a uniform plan in all communities.

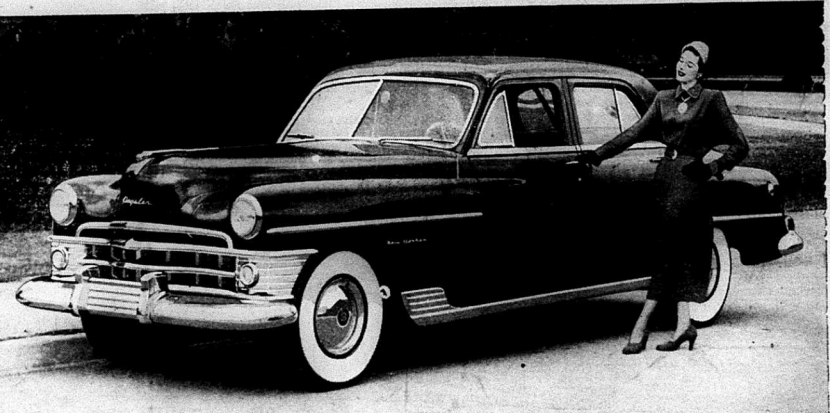

ARTIFICIAL BREEDING

After only one year of artificial breeding association service in Duval County 28 members of the association have bred 1,600 cows artificially, according to County Agent A. S. Lawton. Mr. Lawton says interest in this type of breeding is growing and most association members are selling their bulls.

wall, and it was a sight to watch the Scots come in dressed in kilts with their bagpipes going followed by the Canadians and their peculiar arm-swinging snappy marching.

Germany wore pants made of some sort of leather. During the stay the boys from the International Section exchanged awards with our own American Scouts, officially.

"I was privileged to act as Color Bearer when the National Colors were grouped on the platform to receive President Truman. Host of the boys did not get to see the President because of the sound and picture trucks massed between him and the audience. They decided that they must go to see the Newsreels back home to find out how he and they looked to each other when facing but unable to perform a friendly nod."

"When camp chores were done, usually in the morning, our time was our own to visit the historical sites of the Valley Forge camp, and we took a trip to Philadelphia where we saw the Liberty Bell, the Independence Hall, the Betsy Bell and Washington Square. A panoramic staging of historical activities at Valley Forge was enacted one night under blue lights and was very realistic and impressive, particularly in the scenes concerning hunger, cold and threatened mutiny of the troops.

"On our return we stopped over at Washington's Raleigh Hotel, where the manager told us at breakfast that his fear of what the boys would do to his furniture and hotel were unfounded. "You boys did quite well, as a matter of fact much better than some of the conventions of grown folks we've had here." The boys appreciated the recognition of our conduct there. We crammed in all the sights in Washington at a glance, even walking up Washington's Monument. (Editor's Note: Try running down its steps sometime; we've done it to our sorrow.) Mount Vernon and the National Cemetery were mixed in with Lincoln Memorial, Smithsonian Institute, The Capitol and other sights."

"The newspapers say we set a world's record by having 43,000 boys attend a religious service at one time; it was impressive. Whatever religion was represented—services were made easy to find on a voluntary basis."

"Sick call was had each morning, taken up mostly by poison ivy and poison oak scratches, accidental bruises and cuts. Telephone, telegraph and a mail service was close at hand with twice daily deliveries. "Advice and direction by older Scout Leaders was available in each section headquarters as well as at General Headquarters."

"It was a sight to look from a Tower over the encampment bearing for 47,000 Scouts all to have pointed out to us where General Washington's Army existed thru the winter, and I heartily recommend to all Scouts to do whatever they can to take this trip for it makes you know more about just how big the U.S. is, and impresses you with some of our history." "The whole trip was accomplished with a minimum of violations of the "Scout Way" of living. I appreciate the trip."

The junior choir rendered the song service. The community Bible school will begin Monday morning, July 1st at the First Baptist Church. The school is for all the children and adults of the community. It will be conducted under the direction of Rev. J. B. Adams, the pastor. The Women's Home Mission Society sponsored a tea Sunday afternoon, June 9, at the home of Mrs. Amelia Houston. Mrs. Teresa Fields gave an interesting talk to the guests. Her subject was "The Missionary Field of Service." The tea was a success.

It was read by the pastor. Then Rev. H. Griffin came forward and delivered the sermon. He preached a short spiritual sermon.

Two members were added to the church, Mrs. Willis Mae Bailey and Mrs. Louise Brenson. The covenant service was open for testimony. Each one testified that they were still working for the Master.

At 6:00 p.m. the BYPU was carried out by Dea. O. W. Brown. 7:30 devotion was conducted by Mrs. Rosa House. Again the junior choir rendered song service. The evening scripture was found in Gen. 32:20-32. It was read by the pastor. Then the pastor preached a wonderful sermon. The communion service was opened with scripture found in St. Math. 14:21-28 verses. It was read by the pastor. The offering for the day was good. On Monday night WHM and the YWA was open at the usual hour with the YWA president, Mrs. Annie Mae Everett. Scripture lesson Palm 33:12 and Proverbs 14:34. The president read the mission lesson from the guide subject, "Fullness Involves the Obedience to the Law." Then the lesson was turned over to our Bible teacher, Mrs. Julia Holland. She taught the lesson very nicely. We have on our sick list, Mrs. Fannie Shelton, Mrs. Annie Lou Brown and Mrs. Tommie Howars. We wish them a speedy recovery.
